THE ONLY HORSES IN AMERICA EDUCATED EXCLUSIVELY TO APPEAR IN OPERA HOUSES.

D. M. BRISTOL,

Whose well earned title, the King Educator of the Brute Mind, is undisputed, was born near the present City of Flint, Mich., Dec. 25, 1849. In early life he developed his love for the horse, his father being the owner of several valuable animals. The professor was educated at Hillsdale College, in his native state, and from boyhood his whole mind seemed to be devoted to the horse—his constant companion. His system of Horse Education has developed hitherto unheard of Equine Sagacity, in which he has achieved a world-wide reputation. His method of Educating and controlling the horse has been imperfectly copied by a few inferior horse trainers with varying results. To his superior knowledge of the horse we have as a result this wonderful Troupe of Educated Animals, the

Original Equestric Curriculum, and the only PERFECTLY Educated School of Horses in this country.

JNO. O. PATRICK,

The well-known and successful amusement Manager, is associated with Prof. Bristol in the direction of this enterprise; all matters pertaining to the business department being under his personal supervision.

Prof. D. M. BRISTOL'S AMAZING ANIMAL ACTORS

PARAGONS OF TRAINING:
MIRACLES OF LEARNING AND SAGACITY!

Prof. Bristol's Horses at Play.

These Perfectly Educated Horses contribute to a higher and more unexceptional class of entertainments than that hitherto furnished. Prof. Bristol, by years of patient and industrious toil, acting solely on the principle of reciprocal kindness to the brute creation, this exemplary man, without the use of whip or other cruel treatment, has succeeded in bringing them to the present state of almost absolute perfection in this science.

Alfonzo in his Unequaled Leaping Act.

Many new difficult Features added since our Last appearance in this State. All the old favorites retained including the world-famed

DENVER AND MATTIE

Presenting no Cheap Tricks, that are well-known in the circus ring, but in every respect have they been taught feats never before attempted, abounding in Astonishing and Amazing Perfection, which no other individual of their species were ever known to execute; and we unhesitatingly promise you the most wonderful exhibition of the kind in existence.

During the past year these horses have appeared in the leading fashionable Theatres of all large cities of this country and received the highest encomiums from both press and public:

- 4 Weeks at 3d Avenue Theatre, New York City.
- 13 Weeks at the Grand Opera House, Baltimore.
- 6 Weeks at the Academy of Music, Chicago.
- 3 Weeks at the Globe Theatre, Boston.
- 3 Weeks at the Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia.
- 2 Weeks at Ford's Theatre, Washington.
- 3 Weeks at Henck's Opera House, Cincinnati.
- 4 Weeks at the Court Street Theatre, Buffalo.
- 4 Weeks at St. Charles Theatre, New Orleans.
- Louisville, Indianapolis, Toronto, Albany, Brooklyn, Providence, Etc.

Under the personal direction of their Educator,
Prof. D. M. BRISTOL.

Endorsed By Leading Journals.

No lover of horses can afford to miss the Equestric Curriculum at the Globe Theatre this week. They will find a most wonderful exhibition of animal intelligence. There is not a dull moment from the time the horses come upon the stage until the curtain falls. Their intelligence and skill cannot be excelled.—Boston Daily Globe.

Boston has seen some wonderful performances of educated horses, but never any which surpasses the one under direction of Prof. Bristol, now at the Globe Theatre. The tricks and antics of these horses are simply amazing.—Boston Daily Herald.

For a show of its kind, Equestric Curriculum, under the direction of Prof. Bristol, at the Globe Theatre, has no superior, if it has any equal.—Boston Morning Journal.

Prof. Bristol's educated horses accomplish the most wonderful feats in response to spoken words of command. The tricks of the animals are marvelous.—PHILADELPHIA ENQUIRER.

Prof. Bristol's Equestric Curriculum, at Ford's Grand Opera House, has been called "marvels of equine intelligence," and without doubt they are. They can't talk, but they do nearly everything else, and their series of acts and tricks elicit the most rapturous applause, and many a dramatic artist would feel highly honored to secure one-half the plaudits showered on these dumb animals.—BALTIMORE TELEGRAM

AS BEAUTIFUL AS THE FABLED ARAB STEEDS

PRESENTED WITH APPROPRIATE SCENERY AND STAGE EFFECTS

A Few of the Many Startling Novelties Performed by these Horses on the Stage.

Horses at School.

Denver helps the Professor off with his overcoat.

Denver takes his hat and brings table.

Alfonzo takes coat off and brings chair.

Denver leads his blind playmate.

Denver brushes coat, takes off over-shoes and puts them away.

Comanche brings the mail.

Col. Wood, Lotta, John Sanbourn and Eagle are reported for punishment by Denver. One is ordered to stand on two legs, another upon his knees, one upon a dunce block, one to lie down and sleep.

Denver goes fishing.

Denver rings bell for mathematical exercises. Claude, on finding the example wrong, erases the figures from the blackboard.

Denver answers call at the door.

Sultan brings writing paper, and tells month, day and hour, at command of her master.

Lotta brings either spoons or currency from a closed money drawer.

Petokey and Denver mail a letter.

Alfonzo shows what he could and would do, with sleepy, good and bad horses, etc.

Sultan distinguishes colors, red, brown, blue and white, brings either from a closed desk which she opens; she will squeal at a word of command, and catch a ball in a manner that is astonishing.

Recess—boys to the left, girls to the right. Boxes and barrels are rolled about and a good time generally had.

Denver swings his teacher, the teacher swings Denver.

John Sanbourn swings.

Tony in his marvelous act, leaping from flying swing to trapeze.

Lotta either trots or paces at word of command.

Comanche imitates a rocking-horse and jumps a rope.

Harry Neema and Alfonso in their exhibition of reasoning from cause to effect. In this unequalled feat the most stubborn doubter is convinced that horses do possess the power of reason.

Alfonzo tilters the two former and actually balances them across a one-half inch oval iron rod; he also turns on the ends of the plank, which is five feet from the floor and but twenty inches wide.

Col. Wood, Eagle, Mattie, Minnie, Claud, Hornet and Denver, constitute the only Equine Swiss Bell Ringers on Earth.

The Military Drill which is something so near human intelligence that it seems hard to dispossess yourself of the idea that the horses are not reasoning beings, the discipline is so perfect. They fall in, march off in single or double file, count-arm, march, come into line right or left, wheel left or right oblique, guide right, go through many intricate evolutions and conduct themselves like regular soldiers.

They walk up and down stairs of theatres and houses with the ease of human beings.

VASTLY SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS

"'Tis Education forms the Mind,
As the Colt is bent, the Horse inclined."

Endorsed by popular praises the most unique exhibition of the age. Imagination cannot conceive of anything more pleasurable to the admirer of man's best friend, the Horse. The most perfect docility and highest order of intelligence that it would be underrating to call mere instinct, all exemplified in this great Troup of Horses.

THE LARGEST AND BEST SCHOOL OF EDUCATED HORSES IN THIS COUNTRY.

DENVER PUMPS

A POPULAR AND FASHIONABLE SUCCESS

DENVER FIRST SWINGS THE PROFESSOR; THEN GETS ON AND SWINGS HIMSELF.

The most amazing manifestation of Equine intelligence ever witnessed in this city, and beyond a doubt unequalled on the face of the earth. Patronized by the most cultured and critical people of the Nation, who attest in unbounded delight the astonishing performances of these animals.

Endorsed by Leading Journals.

The educated horses at Ford's Opera House have proven a wonderful success. The marvelous instinct and intelligence displayed by the animals have been a constant source of wonder and amusement. The whole performance is an illustration of the results of kindness, and carries with it a charming lesson.—BALTIMORE TIMES.

For the general excellence of their training and the novelty of their feats Prof. Bristol's educated horses have no equal. They never fail to interest an audience by their display of almost human sagacity and reasoning powers.—BALTIMORE HERALD.

Prof. Bristol's Equestricallum is worthy the attention of every one who ever loved a horse. Such perfectly trained animals were never seen together before, and they gave a far more interesting entertainment than do most dramatic companies.—LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL.

To describe all that is done by Prof. Bristol's educated horses, ponies and mules would be impossible. It is only necessary to say that the exhibition given is a most wonderful one. They understand what is said to them with an intelligence that is almost human. In fact, no such horses were ever seen before, and no one should fail to visit the Grand Opera House during the week.—INDIANAPOLIS DAILY SENTINEL.

The troupe of perfectly trained and intelligent horses composing Prof. Bristol's Equestricallum is drawing large crowds to the Court St. Theatre. The horses come so near to exhibiting human intelligence that it is no easy matter for one to rid himself of the idea that they are not indeed reasoning beings.—BUFFALO DAILY TIMES.

There was not a vacant seat at Low's Opera House last evening at the first performance of Prof. Bristol's troupe of educated horses, and it was indeed a wonderful exhibition of animal sagacity, the horses working very much quicker and more intelligently than Prof. Bartholomew's.—PROVIDENCE DAILY STAR.

Last night the people crowded Low's Opera House to see Prof. Bristol's famous equine school. They are much superior to Prof. Bartholomew's paradox, which exhibited here last season. The audience last night was fairly carried away by the wonderful exhibition given by the dumb brutes.—PROVIDENCE MAIL.

A very large audience crowded into the Opera House last evening eager to witness the performance of Prof. Bristol's trained horses. The beasts do everything but talk, and held the attention of the audience from first to last. The entertainment surpasses Bartholomew's, which appeared at Ford's last season.—NEW HAVEN HART.
